LAW OF MONGOLIA ON INSURANCE INTERMEDIARIES

30 April, 2004.
city.

Ulaanbaatar

CHAPTER ONE. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Purpose of this law

- 1.1. The purpose of this law is to establish conditions of and requirements for activities of insurance intermediaries and to regulate relations concerned with supervising and monitoring of activities of insurance intermediaries by the state supervisory body and issuance of licenses of insurance activities.

Article 2. Legislation

- 2.1. Legislation on insurance intermediaries consists of the Constitution of Mongolia¹, the Civil Code² the Company Law³, the Law on Insurance, the present law and other relevant laws and regulations made thereunder.
- 2.2. Provided an international treaty or agreement to which Mongolia is a party sets rules other than those specified in this law, the provisions of the international treaty or agreement shall prevail.
- 2.3. Relations connected with insurance intermediaries which are not regulated by this law shall be regulated by the Law on Insurance.

Article 3. Basic definitions used in the law

- 3.1. The definitions used in this law except for those specified in Paragraph 3.2. of this law shall have the meaning specified in the Law on Insurance.
- 3.2. The definitions used in this law shall have the meanings as follows:
 - 3.2.1. 'insurance intermediaries' shall mean insurance agents, insurance brokers and loss adjusters;
 - 3.2.2. 'insurance agent' shall mean a legal or natural person assigned or obligated by an insurer to represent the legal interests of the insurer and to solicit, negotiate and effect contracts of insurance and undertake other legal actions on behalf of the insurer;
 - 3.2.3. 'insurance broker' shall mean a legal or natural person who carries out intermediary activities in accordance with authorities assigned to him/her by an insured or an insurer representing their interests and who charge fees and commissions for his/her services;
 - 3.2.4. 'loss adjuster' shall mean a legal person who works independently to investigate claims, determine the extent of an insurer's liability for loss and make claim settlement negotiations representing the insured and the insurer. A loss adjuster charges fees, commissions or other types of payments for his/her services;

- 3.2.5. The Financial Regulatory Commission is the organization specified in Paragraph 12.1. of this law.
- 3.2.6. 'foreign insurance intermediary' shall mean an insurance agent or an insurance broker or a loss adjuster based in a foreign country.
- 3.3. An employee of an insurer who is salaried by that insurer shall not be regarded as an insurance agent specified in Section 3.2.2. of this law.
- 3.4. The persons specified below shall not be regarded as a loss adjuster provided in Section 3.2.4. of this law:
 - 3.4.1. an employee of an insurer or an insurance agent;
 - 3.4.2. an insurance agent;

CHAPTER TWO. STATE SUPERVISION OF INSURANCE INTERMEDIARY ACTIVITIES

Article 4. state central body of insurance supervision

- 4.1. The state central body of insurance supervision shall exercise the following authorities:
 - 4.1.1. development of proposals directed to improvement and perfection of laws and regulations of the activities of professional insurance participants;
 - 4.1.2. carrying out other responsibilities and obligations specified in the relevant laws and regulations.

Article 5. Financial Regulatory Commission

- 5.1. The Financial Regulatory Commissions shall be empowered to:
 - 5.1.1. supervise the activities of licensed insurance intermediaries compliant to the provisions of this law;
 - 5.1.2. grant, suspend, reinstate, and cancel/terminate licenses for insurance intermediary activities; control the fulfillment of the license conditions and requirements;
 - 5.1.3. apply sanctions to natural or legal persons in case they operate as insurance intermediary without corresponding certificates;
 - 5.1.4. approve and implement the set of insurance regulations and monitor the compliance;
 - 5.1.5. other authorities specified in the relevant laws and regulations.

Article 6. Regulations of insurance intermediary activities

- 6.1. Insurance intermediary activities shall be regulated under the set of insurance regulations approved by the Financial Regulatory Commission.
- 6.2. The set of insurance regulations shall consist of the provisions specified in Paragraph 14.2. of the Law on Insurance as well as of the following rules, guidelines, procedures, conditions, requirements and norms:
 - 6.2.1. requirements for insurance intermediaries;
 - 6.2.2. requirements for the auditors of insurance intermediaries;
 - 6.2.3. procedures for the contents and forms of the accounting documents and financial statements/reports of insurance intermediaries;
 - 6.2.4. lists of information and documentation to be provided with an application for the license specified herein;
 - 6.2.5. amount of fee charged by the Financial Regulatory Commission;
 - 6.2.6. requirements for the insurance intermediaries that open branches or representative offices abroad and carry out insurance intermediation activities in foreign countries;
 - 6.2.7. conditions and requirements for the activities of foreign insurance intermediaries that open branches of representative offices in Mongolia to conduct insurance intermediation activities;
 - 6.2.8. guidelines for foreign insurance intermediaries to prepare and submit information, data and statements/reports compliant to this law.

Article 7. Procedures of insurance intermediary activities

- 7.1. The Financial Regulatory Commission may develop and introduce special procedures in order to effectively supervise the activities of insurance intermediaries.
- 7.2. Although insurance intermediaries are not obligated to follow the procedures specified in Paragraph 7.1. of this law, failure to do so might constitute ground, in the event of applying sanctions to an insurance intermediary, for considering that person as not fit or improper for holding an insurance intermediary license or that the intermediary failed to conduct qualified activities.

CHAPTER THREE. LICENSING OF INSURANCE INTERMEDIARY ACTIVITIES

Article 8. Types of insurance intermediation activity licenses

- 8.1. The licenses for insurance intermediation activities shall be of the following types:
 - 8.1.1. Insurance Agent License
